

Disasters cause tough questions when your housing is affected...

- Are you worried and have questions about speaking with your mortgage lender?
- Do you rent and have unique housing questions?
- You are now homeless and scared about the future?
- Has this disaster caused financial strain on your already strained finances?

Lutheran Social Services of Southern California, a 70 year faith based non-profit organization, is here to help anyone with confidential guidance, during and beyond this catastrophic event, at no cost.

Take the first step and call or email to set an appointment, today.

CALL IN HOURS

Monday - Friday
9:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

805-497-9874

housing@lsssc.org
80 E. Hillcrest Drive
Thousand Oaks, CA 91360

Lutheran Social Services is ready to help as a uniquely qualified HUD approved Housing Counseling Agency.

Professional housing counselors are waiting to help you:

- Speak with your lender about the damages or loss of your home and the options available for you.
- Sort out property taxes due at the time of damage or loss.
- Realign your finances and maximize them to meet your obligations.

LUTHERAN SOCIAL SERVICES

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA